

chris edwardes has worked in the bar industry for over 30 years including running bars in bath and bristol before running the jazz cafe in london and managing the bar at the groucho club in soho, opening and managing the atlantic bar for ollie peyton, the pharmacy bar for damian hirst and the g.e. club at the great eastern hotel at liverpool st for sir terrance conran.

he and his wife amanda blanch then moved to brighton to open there own business at blanch house, this was the perfect match of chris's industry experience and amanda's interior design skills. after establishing there business they opened the hanbury club in brighton and then established drink pimps combining there skills to benefit others.

drink pimps international specialize in all things bar, they have been teaching people about cocktails, their history and everything booze for over seven years, from enthusiastic amateurs to industry professionals. chris edwardes owner of blanch house and the hanbury club and founder of drink pimps has recently won 'the outstanding contribution to the bar industry' award for theme magazine. his hotel blanch house has won best bar team, best customer service and best cocktail offering for class magazine beating every other bar in the u.k. and has been nominated again this year for best bar team and best hotel bar.

chris and his team have branched out this year into events and consultancy and has created and designed the perfect cocktail menus and worked with many local and national companies including working on the 'class magazine's christmas party and many other events ranging from hose parties for 4 to drinks and canapes for 400. drink pimps has also teamed up with 'quintessentially events' the sister company of the world renown 'quintessentially' the best concierge service in in the city and beyond,where we have worked on a spectacular birthday party in cap ferrat in the south of france and the fantastic 'hugo boss' party for the launch of their new collection at their london offices. chris and his team provide a comprehensive service for functions of all sizes and also specialize in corporate team building events and bar design.

for some testimonials, please see following pages

drink pimps ltd
the hanbury club
83 st george's road
brighton bn2 1ef

+44 (0)1273 605789

info@drinkpimps.com
www.drinkpimps.com

01 October 2007

Chris Edwardes and Amanda Blanch
Drink Pimps
The Hanbury Club
83 St George's Road
Brighton BN2 1EL

Dear Chris & Amanda,

We just wanted to let you know what a pleasure it has been working with Drink Pimps throughout the course of this year. You have been wonderfully helpful and organised at our events both in the UK and abroad. You are head and shoulders above other event drinks companies at designing fantastic drinks that can be produced in large volume and not suffer in quality. Your staff are friendly, charming and really quick. We look forward to working with you on many events in the future.

All the best,
Caroline

CAROLINE HURLEY
Director
Quintessentially Events
10 Carlisle Street
London W1D 3BR

drink pimps ltd
the hanbury club
83 st george's road
brighton bn2 1ef

+44 (0)1273 605789

info@drinkpimps.com
www.drinkpimps.com

18 June 2007

Anabel Fielding
Director
Quintessentially Events Limited
10 Carlisle Street
London W1D 3BR
United Kingdom

Dear Anabel

I wanted to take this opportunity to congratulate you, Caroline and all of your wonderful team at Quintessentially for a truly world-class party. I think it's fair to say that the event was memorable for everyone that attended, but especially for my family and I.

The quality of everything from the food, wine, event layout and most especially the stage was spectacular.

Many have asked me who I used to organise the event and I am quite certain that Quintessentially will be getting a number of phone calls from people over the coming weeks who want to use your service.

I especially want to point out the excellent service provided by the bar staff and particularly the couple from Brighton who were exceptional.

Once again, thank you for everything.
Best regards

Dómhnaíl Slattery
Managing Partner

drink pimps ltd
the hanbury club
83 st george's road
brighton bn2 1ef

+44 (0)1273 605789

info@drinkpimps.com
www.drinkpimps.com